

American Camp Association (ACA)

Camp Boggy Creek is a member and fully accredited by the American Camp Association (ACA). ACA Accreditation means that Camp Boggy Creek submitted to a thorough review (up to 300 standards) of its operation by the ACA .

About the ACA:

- The ACA is a community of camp professionals dedicated to enriching the lives of children and adults through the camp experience.
- ACA serves as a resource and provides educational opportunities, research, policy work, outreach to parents, families, and other professionals to build safer, healthier, more fun environments where children and youth can become leaders, environmental stewards, and a healthier population
- ACA is the only independent accrediting organization reviewing camp operations in the country. ACA's nationally recognized standards program focuses primarily on the health, safety, and risk management aspects of a camp's operation.
- ACA collaborates with experts from the American Academy of Pediatrics, the American Red Cross, and other youth-serving agencies to assure that current practices at the camp reflect the most up-to-date, research-based standards in camp operation.

SeriousFun Children's Network (SFCN)

Camp Boggy Creek is one of 16 member camps of the SeriousFun Children's Network, founded by Paul Newman. Camp Boggy Creek meets participates in a regular review process and meets all the requirements for full membership as designated by the SeriousFun Children's Network. The SFCN is a global community of independently managed camps and programs creating opportunities for children with serious illnesses and their families to reach beyond illness and discover joy, confidence and a new world of possibilities, always free of charge. Camp Boggy Creek is the only SFCN member camp in Florida.