

Weekend Entertainment

Featuring:

Landon Lane

*Saturday, October 5th
Silver Champagne Ball*

With over 20 years of experience, Landon Lane is a remarkable boogie woogie piano player. He has been influenced by musicians such as, Jerry Lee Lewis, Elvis Presley, Fats Domino and Ray Charles. Landon is a 2011 Rockabilly Hall of Fame inductee.

He has played nationally and internationally in places such as Copenhagen Denmark, Chicago, Pennsylvania, and his hometown of Memphis TN along with many more. He has also opened for Jerry Lee Lewis on a New Year's Eve show. Landon's show is a very electric and entertaining show that can be appreciated by all.

Click here to learn more about Landon Lane and view his Facebook page.

Featuring:

Tobacco Rd Band

Sunday, October 6th

The Ride for Children

Tobacco Rd Band was formed by Eric Durrance, CMT artist and co-writer of Jake Owens top 10 single “Eight Second Ride”. The four-piece Florida hard rocking country band hit the ground running with their first single “Stiff Drink”. It received lots of airplay on country radio stations and soon the band was packing bars and clubs around the South East.

The band has opened shows for Josh Turner, Jake Owen, Justin Moore, Jason Aldean, Cole Swindell, Brantley Gilbert and many many more. The band also teamed up with Colt Ford in the studio to record their smash hit “That’s Country”. In 2016, the band plans to continue pushing forward with their 5th studio album and plans to release the first single off the album this spring!

Click here to visit the band website and learn more about Tobacco Rd Band!