Dear Camp Boggy Creek Family and Friends,

Welcome to your sixth edition of Beyond the Gates: Peek of the Week. It’s Olympics and World Records week at Camp and we are so excited to celebrate our accomplishments. Check out this newsletter to enjoy a champion activity, to laugh with your friends, and have so much fun! Get excited to go the extra mile with family and friends near and far, it’s going to be a record-breaking week!

Hey Camp Boggy Creek, how do you feel!!?!

Need a refresher?
Miss-clap-miss-clap-miss-clap. Huh!

This week we are practicing a favorite Blue Pride cheer! Stay tuned for future newsletters as we celebrate each of the Pride colors.

Unit Blue (a repeat-after-me cheer)

E-I-E-I-E-I-O
Come on Unit Blue let’s go Scooby-dooby-dooby-doo
Oh-oh-oh oh oh

Repeat 3x, getting louder each time!

---

WORD SEARCH

Can you find and circle all of the Camp words hidden in the word search? Words can be vertical, horizontal, or diagonal.

Answers are on the back!

Saturday summers when I was a kid,
We’d run to school yard and here’s what we did.
We’d pick out the captains and we’d choose up
the teams,
It was always a measure of my self-esteem.
‘Cause the fastest and strongest played shortstop
and first,
The last ones they picked were the worst.
I never needed to ask, it was sealed,
I just took up my place in right field.

Chorus:
Playing right field, it’s easy you know.
You can be awkward and you can be slow.
That’s why I’m here in right field,
Just watchin’ the dandelions grow.

Playing right field can be lonely and dull,
Little leagues never have lefties that pull.
I dream of the day they’d hit one my way,
They never did but still I would pray
That I’d make a fantastic catch on the run,
And not lose the ball in the sun.
Then I’d awake from this long reverie,
And pray that the ball never came out to me...here in...

Chorus (modified):
Here in right field, it’s important you know,
You gotta know how to catch, you gotta know how to throw.
That’s why I’m here in right field,
Just watchin’ the dandelions grow.

Cabin chats are a way to share our experiences and build a sense of connection with others. We encourage you to talk about your responses with someone you are living with, or call a friend to discuss.

Here are a couple of things to remember for cabin chats: 1. Some people might not want their answers shared with other people outside the cabin chat. Be mindful of what you’re sharing. 2.
Please give appropriate responses to what others are sharing. Only laugh if something is intended to be funny. We want to respect our Cabin Chat buddies.

1. If you could create a new sport
what would it be?
2. What is your idea of a perfect day?
