Miss-clap-miss-clap-miss-clap. Huh!

This week we are practicing a favorite Red Pride cheer! Stay tuned for future newsletters as we celebrate each of the Pride colors.

Cabin chats are a way to share our experiences and build a sense of connection with others. We encourage you to talk about your responses with someone you are living with, or call a friend to discuss.

Here are a couple of things to remember for cabin chats: 1. Some people might not want their answers shared with other people outside the cabin chat. Be mindful of what you’re sharing. 2. Please give appropriate responses to what others are sharing. Only laugh if something is intended to be funny. We want to respect our Cabin Chat buddies.

1. In the future, if you could time travel what time period would you visit and why?
2. What are your lows and highs of the day?

Questions to think about; there are no right or wrong answers!
1. If a bar of soap fell on the floor, would the floor be clean or would the soap be dirty?
2. If tomatoes are technically considered fruit, then does this mean ketchup is technically considered a jelly or jam?

Love Is

Chorus:
Love is higher than the mountain.
Love is deeper than the ocean,
Love is longer that the miles between you and me.

Love is stronger than a freight train,
Love is faster than a jet plane,
Love is bigger than the troubles that we’ll ever see.

Verse 1:
There’s nothing to hide, nothing to fear,
everything’s crystal clear.
No phony disguise, no faces to wear,
nothing we cannot share.
’Cause I am at ease when I am with you,
I know love is gonna see us through.

Chorus

Verse 2:
We’re never apart, we’re never alone,
love is closer than the telephone.
No wall is too high, no distance too great,
that love would ever hesitate.
We are the stage, love is the play,
And the scene is just another day.

Chorus

Bridge:
Long is the day, dark is the night,
Love is gonna be our light.
The valley is low, the desert is dry,
But love will never die.

Chorus
